

In Religious Studies you should...

1. After each lesson Complete any reading /notes you have been asked to make or any unfinished work
2. Weekly Make revision cards or mind maps summarising the notes you have been given in class Ensure your file is up to date and notes are in the correct order, with no gaps.
3. Fortnightly Check your group on Teams for any additional reading
4. Termly Use the knowledge Organisers and Exam Walkthrough PPTs on the resources page on the WJEC website to revise for any assessments AS/A Level Religious Studies (wjec.co.uk)
5. Throughout the year Complete past paper questions with mark schemes are made available on WJEC. https://www.wjec.co.uk/qualifications/  You should work through these questions to test your knowledge and critically assess your work using the mark schemes.
6. Mooc https://www.unifrog.org/student/moocs/long-list complete a mooc if you are considering studying RE at university