

Who has the K Factor?

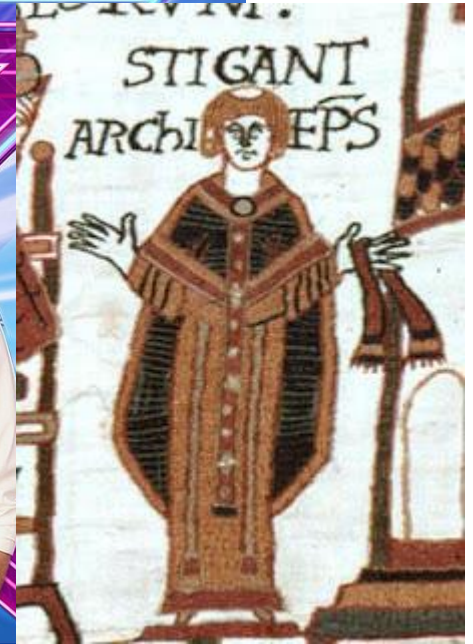

Our job is to find the person who should be the next King in 1066.....
Who has the K Factor?

On tonight's show you can expect to...

Know the strengths and weaknesses of each contestant.

Understand why each contestant thought they had a claim to the throne.

Be able to choose a winner of the 'K
Factor' - who should be King.

We are sorry to announce that one contestant, Edgar Aetheling has had to leave the competition with bad health. Although he is the King's nephew, he was also underage. Our policy states you must be 16, but he was only 14.

Harold Godwinson

William of Normandy

Harald Hardrada

What country are they from?

Who said that they should be King?

Are they related to any previous Kings of England?

He was Edwards brother-in-law

He was Edwards cousin

What good qualities does he have that will make him a good King?

What supporters does he have?

What will he do with land?

How is he better than other contenders?

“The King of Scotland has promised to support Harald Hardrada.

Harald is also friends with Tostig who is Harold Godwinson’s brother.

Plus, I know that Vikings who live in the north of England will support him!”

“God and the Pope both want William to become King.

As well as this, all of the people of Normandy will support him!

“The fact is that the Witan, a meeting of all the powerful people in England, said that Harold Godwinson should be King. That means that the people of England want him!”

Harold Godwinson already owns more land than anybody else in England so he won't need to take anybody else's land. And, he won't need lots of taxes to pay for soldiers because he already has a big army!"

If William wins the X Factor and becomes King easily then people might get to keep their land.

But William won't give up. If he has to fight for the throne, he will need to take people's land so he can afford to pay for his army!"

the people of England will have nothing to worry about if Harald Hardrada becomes King. He and his supporters already own lots of land in Norway and Denmark.

As long as people pay him plenty of lovely taxes, he won't touch their land at all!"

Speech!!

You must write a speech explaining who you think has K factor in 1066.
